STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

NIST Institute of Science & Technology, Berhampur is a renowned educational institution whose inception dates back to the year 1996, primarily established to cater to the technical and professional education needs of students of Odisha and beyond. Operating under the patronage of SM Charitable Educational Trust, a not-for-profit organization which has been well-recognised for its contributions to the society in the spectrums of education, community development and healthcare.

Having continuously extending quality education for over 27 years in the field of Engineering and Technology, NIST Institute of Science & Technology has updated itself with industry and society relevant demands for quality education in a diverse area. With more than 18000-alumni foot prints across domains and across the globe, the contribution of NIST Institute of Science & Technology, Berhampur in social and economic development of India and beyond is immeasurable.

As part of its social engagements, this Institute has always participated in social development initiatives like organising blood donation camps, awareness campaigns, health camps in rural areas, rural infrastructure development etc. With the continuous service to the society primarily in the form of quality education delivery and secondarily extending various services targeted at mitigating misery of people mostly from underprivileged section of our society, NIST Institute of Science & Technology, Berhampur always dreams and works passionately for the greater good of the humanity. NIST Institute of Science & Technology, Berhampur can even do more in the fields of educational research and its multi-disciplinary applications in solving complex problems of the society if given with more autonomy as a university.

The proposed University will broaden the horizon and give an impetus to multi-disciplinary teaching and research. This will also help in introducing new generation industry oriented and employment linked courses. Moreover, this will expand the scope for opening different schools to deliver multi and inter-disciplinary courses by accelerating the present sectoral focus of NIST Institute of Science & Technology, Berhampur. It will also enable the institute to have better access to academic resources and intellectual capital worldwide. This will facilitate the Institute to have strong focus on research and introduce Doctoral and Post-Doctoral programmes. Converting the institute into University will open doors for sharing of experiences and taking up of collaborative ventures for higher learning and research with other Universities in the State, Country and Overseas.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
